

NECROMUNDA

ASHGATE

GUILD BULLETIN

It is the start of a new production cycle in and the merchant guild would like to issue the following bulletin. Gang violence has erupted in and around Ashgate. Rumours of a new find and a kidnapped prospector led to a frenzy of raids on gang safehouses and public threats were made by several gangs. A violent fracture in Cawdor supported gangs led to a conflict between two groups calling themselves the Holey Rollers and Gamma Charlie, with the latter raiding the formers' territory. Initial reports suggest that the clash was explosive and left several gang members dead or severely injured. Rumours suggest that Gamma Charlie later attempted to ambush a separate, more elusive gang; the Shadow Asp's, this conflict happened further from the settlement and was more subdued. Gamma Charlie is proving to be highly aggressive and guild members are warned to exercise additional caution when dealing with this gang. Further reports indicate that two gangs supported by Van Saar clashed in old staging district with a gang going by the name of Ashgate Antagonists raiding territory controlled by [Nathans gang]. Reports suggest that this conflict was well planned by the attacking Antagonists and their raid was brutally successful. Guild informants observed the Antagonists hauling a struggling figure back to their territory and rumours suggest that this figure was tortured.

Known Antagonist members were spotted buying supplied and it seems that the gang has sent members off in the direction the kidnapped prospector stumbled into town from. The guild recommends allocating additional resources to observing the Ashgate Antagonists as their operation seem to be highly professional and dangerous. In addition to the escalating gang violence, several other gangs have been reported to be stockpiling ammo and are expected to be joining in the turf wars. The guild is recommending a lockdown on sensitive trade and an increase in enforcer security for vital trade. The following gangs are currently being observed in Ashgate:

NAME		Rep
Ashgate Antagonists	-	7
Gamma Charlie	-	4
Shadow Asps	-	2
Rowdy 3	-	1
[Nathans Gang]	-	1
Holey Rollers	-	1

The Guild advises that additional gangs are expected to mobilise as the violence creates opportunities and a heavier enforcer presence may be ordered in as a result. Primary production is not expected to be affected.

